

“i do”

The Checklist for Polite Young People

Let's start out life's adventure learning manners and character. Each new step we take will bring us closer to becoming young men and women of character and integrity.

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> I do use the magic words: “please”, “thank you”, “excuse me”, “you’re welcome”, “no thank you” and “I’m sorry” | <input type="checkbox"/> I do talk to my parents and siblings: I say “Good morning,” “Good-bye” and “Good night”  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> I do ask family members how things are going.  | <input type="checkbox"/> I do accept compliments and say: “Thank you”.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> I do get the owner’s permission when I borrow items, and I do return them in good condition.                   | <input type="checkbox"/> I do use good table manners.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> I do use an “indoor voice” when I am in the house.   | <input type="checkbox"/> I do pick up after myself.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> I do use good telephone manners.   | <input type="checkbox"/> I do arrive on time.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> I do knock gently on a closed door before entering.  | <input type="checkbox"/> I do respect the feelings of others and show consideration.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> I do ask others if I can lend a hand and help out.   | <input type="checkbox"/> I do greet people politely and say: “Hi, how are you?”   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> I do share and take turns using things like the phone or the computer.   | <input type="checkbox"/> I do respect the privacy of others. I don’t listen in on their telephone conversations, read other people’s mail or snoop in their drawers, closets or purses. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> I do stand when an adult or person I haven’t met comes into the room.  | <input type="checkbox"/> I do try to be a good sport, follow the rules of the game, win with grace, or lose without complaining.  |

"Proud to Be Polite USA"
Copyright 2008 Manners Matter USA

Leadership Matters

expert style & etiquette coaching

Learn more online at leadership-matters.biz